

Role Outline –Cheer Volunteer

Join Team Endometriosis UK and be one of our amazingly brilliant cheer volunteers.

We are looking for loud and enthusiastic volunteers to help cheer on our fantastic running and challenge participants. They take on incredible fundraising challenges to improve the lives of those with endometriosis and raise awareness of the condition, and you will help provide the motivation they need on event days. You will be clapping and cheering as loud as you can at one of our heavily branded cheer points. This is a vital role; with your help we can show how much we value their support and increase Endometriosis UK's visibility.

You can volunteer by yourself, or with friends, family, or colleagues... the more the merrier!

What will you do?

- Spotting Endometriosis UK running and challenge participants on the course.
- Cheer and clap as loud as humanly possible to make participants feel valued.
- Making noise to boost participants to complete their challenge.
- Take photos of runners and share with Endometriosis UK Staff present on the day.

Skills and experience needed.

- Ability to empathise with people and not to Bags of enthusiasm and energy.
- Being comfortable being in loud and crowded areas
- Committed to Endometriosis UK's mission.
- Happy to be on your feet for a period of time.

'I ended up staying for three hours and had such fun; laughing, cheering and trying to spot our runners, as well as looking at the outfits!'* Endometriosis UK cheer volunteer
