

Be a Pride 2025 Volunteer!

We are excited to be returning to Pride for a second year. We are looking for information stand volunteers and parade volunteers to join us. You will be raising awareness of endometriosis and Endometriosis UK within LGBTQIA+ communities. This is an integral part of ensuring everyone with endometriosis has access to support as part of our mission.

"It was fantastic to be at Pride, we had lots of people wanting to speak to us – many thanked us for being there to spread awareness, some thanked us for helping them personally to get a diagnosis, lots of people sharing their symptoms and asking for advice." – London Pride 2024

What will you do?

- Host an information stand or walk the Pride parade route (Cymru only)
- Engage the public with conversation and fun activities highlighting our support and information offer
- Communicate and empathise with people who have different identities, backgrounds and life experiences.
- Take photos and videos to share on our social media channels
- Escalate issues to present staff member, if needed
- Provide Endometriosis UK with event and volunteer experience feedback

Who are we looking for?

No special qualifications are needed for this role. You will need to be:

- Confident speaking with the public
- Comfortable in loud and crowded areas
- Able to communicate and empathise with others who have different identities, backgrounds and life experiences
- In support of Endometriosis UK's mission and commitment to Equality, Diversity and Inclusion
- Aged 16 or over, and have photo ID

When and Where?

London, Grampian and Bristol are confirmed, we are/will be applying for the others

- Sat 7th June - Grampian Pride stand
- Sat 21st June - Cymru Pride parade
- Sat 5th July - London Pride stand
- Sat 12th July - Bristol Pride stand

- Sat 26th July - Wrexham Pride stand
- Sat 30th Aug - Leicester Pride stand
- Date TBC - Glasgow Pride stand

Minimum 3 hours required.

Event times vary, and depending on the event it can range from 8am until 8pm.

We value diversity. Research shows that people from marginalised communities are more likely to experience poor healthcare. They are also underrepresented within the endometriosis community and our pool of volunteers. We encourage applications from people from marginalised communities, including people who are LGBTQIA+ and from ethnic minorities.

Training, Support and Expenses

You will receive a Volunteer Pack, FAQs and event briefings – dates TBC, ensuring you have the necessary knowledge and skills for your role. There will be Endometriosis UK staff leading as well as Pride event staff on hand. Travel expenses up to £100, directly related to the event, will be covered. Other expenses will be covered in alignment within our expenses policy

How to apply

If you are interested in this role, please complete, and return our application form. For successful candidates, we will require two-character references.
